Mr. Frank Banks
First National Bank Bldg.
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Frank,

I made a slight slip when I introduced you this noon and the fault was mine that I did not tell you that I expected you to jump to your feet and carry on.

I want to tell you, however, what a fine job you did. I am sure that your contribution to the program made a real gentleman sincerely happy. I am referring, of course, to A. J.

Sincerely and Rotarily,
