

H. B. Chubb --

Professor of Political Science, University of Kansas.
Teaches courses in International Law and International Relations.

Came to the University of Kansas 1918 from George Washington University, Washington, D. C. While there he was Research Assistant for the House and Senate, and was also on the staff of the Library of Congress. During World War I was in the Treasury Department on War Risk.

In 1926 he went to Europe for the Carnegie Endowment.