Dear Rotarian:

While in Florida this month, I addressed three Rotary Clubs -- Miami, Orlando, and St. Petersburg -- in which there was an aggregate of 787 visiting Rotarians from 38 states. Many of these have returned to their home Clubs and as a result, I've received requests for the same address from 30 states, and will fill some of these engagements in the West, including appearances in St. Louis and Kansas City and in the Chicago area.

For this reason, I could speak to your Club between May 1st and May 14th at the low fee of $50, although the larger Clubs have paid $100, and I've received as much as $350 for this address on which has been heard by more than 100 Rotary Clubs, including Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Detroit, Nashville, Atlanta, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Montreal, Syracuse, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Washington, etc.

You can reach me at this hotel until April 7th; later at my home address: 10915 Lake Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

Since there are but a few dates available in the above period of time, and I'm sending this letter to twelve Rotary Clubs in the Middle West, it may be well to wire for the date you want.

Sincerely yours,

LOUIS J. ALBER
