Mr. George Edwards,
Basketball Coach,
University of Missouri,
Columbia, Missouri.

Dear George:

I am just wondering, prior to our meeting at Lincoln next Friday, May 20, when would be the best time to play our two basketball games. Perhaps an exchange of ideas between us before we get to the meeting might help us, as Missouri and Kansas have always scheduled games late in January and late in March.

I believe it is our time to play over at your place last, so we would like to have Missouri here, if possible, on January 25. Our examinations start on January 26, and I would like to have this game just before examinations, if possible. I find we have a very long examination period - January 26 to February 2 - and then our enrollment does not begin until February 6 and 7, and classes begin on the 8th. So we have a long two-weeks period in there.

It will be necessary for us to start playing early in January and play as late as possible to enable us to get in any sort of a home schedule before the holidays.

Another question - are you finishing your season on March 3 or 4, or 10 or 11? Of course, if the Big Six track meet is on Friday and Saturday we would be forced to play on Thursday, and that would be on March 2 or 9.

I thought if you would drop me a line regarding your desires it would help us in our tentative schedule; at least, in planning something. I realize that we cannot schedule games before the meeting, but I think it is well to have a general understanding. Will you please send me your examination dates, and so forth?

Thanking you, and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
