

and listed him as the number one player on the squad.

Player B. Forward and Center.

From the standpoint of time, this player played more minutes (266) than any other player except player A. He was also second high scorer, earning 66 points by making 23 goals (27.1%) and 30 free throws (66.7%). From the standpoint of evaluation points, he was also second earning 1307 points, and had a playing efficiency of 92.2%. In ball handling errors he rated 2.9%. Six of his teammates rated poorer in this department. However, in spite of his errors in ball handling he made more passes at the opportune time to players who scored than any other individual. Even on immediate assists per minute he rated second to only one other player, and this player played only 22.5 minutes during the season. There were four men on the squad that took more shots per minute. He was the only forward on the team to make more passes than catches who played more than 22.5 minutes. He had only 8 personal fouls and was the only player with over 200 playing minutes to have so few fouls. He was rated third by his fellow players, and second by his coach and the freshmen players.

Player C. Guard.

Player C played 263.5 minutes, earning 1300 evaluation points and 31 score points, scoring 13 goals (33.3%) and 5 free throws (71.4%). He handled the ball on passes and catches 1004 times which is the second greatest number on the squad and had a ball handling error rate of 1.7% which is next to that of players A and G. However, player C played over $2\frac{1}{2}$ times as many minutes as player G. This player took a total of 39 shots and this is the smallest number of shots for any of the players that had over 200 minutes of playing time. As a guard he was in position to recover rebounds from off the
