

he rates as the No. 1 man. This is also true for the recovery of his teammate's jump balls. On the basis of personal fouls per minute, this player ranked eleventh for the squad only two making more than he did. The data indicate that the player was fairly efficient, but that his shooting average was far too low. He makes a first class man on handling rebounds off his own backboard and getting the ball after a teammate's jump, but he committed too many personal fouls. His teammates, freshmen and coach rated him fifth.

Player G. Forward and Guard

This player was listed as both a forward and a guard. He played 100 minutes, made 460 evaluation points and ten score points, 4 goals (20.0%), and shot 2 free throws for 50.0%. He earned a rating on player efficiency of 94.2%, which places him in fifth place for the squad. In errors for ball handling, he rated first with a rate of 1.13%. As a guard he had an opportunity to recover rebounds off the opponent's backboard to such an extent that he rated No. 2 for the squad on a basis of rebounds per minute. He passed the ball more than he caught it, and on the basis of shots per minute there are only 3 players who took less shots. This player is twelfth on the basis of personal fouls committed per minute. The data indicate that he was an excellent ball handler, and a good rebound recoverer, but he did not shoot enough. On the basis of efficiency his coach, teammates and freshmen rated him ninth.
