

PROPOSED CHANGES IN WORDING OR ARRANGEMENT

- 5-2. Omit "direct and control its play".
- 5-3. Penalty might be provided for this infraction.
- 5-6. Penalty might be provided.
- 6-2. Omit "etc.".
- 6-3. Substitute "end of game" for "second half".
- 6-5. Is "recognize" in the second sentence the proper word?
- 6-7. In the last answer "on the side" is contradictory.
- 6-8. We might be more specific about what constitutes unsportsmanlike conduct.
- 6-9. Provide for case where basket is made during last few seconds and umpire declares it should count and referee that it should not.
- 6-11. First sentence might read "When a foul occurs the official shall blow his whistle and shall designate the offender."
- 6-13. Does the last clause apply to the case where the referee and umpire make different rulings on whether the ball was in the air at the end of playing time?
- 7-7-e. No provision is made for exception for foul occurring after ball has left free thrower's hands.
- 7-7-h. Does this apply when a goal is made through continuing motion following a foul?
- 7-7-Note. Should special provision be made if ball goes out of bounds after striking an official?
- 7-16-Questions 1 and 2. Consider the cases where the foul follows the ball leaving the free thrower's hands. Also "on the same play" is indefinite.
- 8-5-d. Should this include double violation?
- 8-8-Note. Substitute "official" for "referee or umpire".
- 8-8-Question 2. Should this answer be reworded?
- 9-4. This might read "a team which refuses to play after referee has instructed them to do so, shall forfeit the game."
- 11-1. There is considerable overlapping between this section and 6-13. The whole section might be rewritten to conform to 6-13.
