I am sending you the basketball schedule for Kansas as arranged by the Big Six Conference when the coaches met at Ames, Iowa, on the third Friday and Saturday in May. The other games listed are Oklahoma A. and M., both at home and away, Creighton University at Omaha, Southern Methodist University - two games at Lawrence, the dedication of the Central Missouri State Teachers College new field house, and a possibility of dedicating Michigan State College's new ten thousand spectator capacity field house at East Lansing, and also a game with them at Lawrence, and another contingency of playing in a Kansas Collegiate Tournament at Topeka after Christmas. We may have a clinic game on December 9th here in Lawrence. You will note that the dedication of the field house at Warrensburg is on December 8th, but the Kansas State High School Coaches Association desires that we have a clinic game here in Lawrence for rules interpretations and demonstrations by the Kansas varsity and by an opposing team for the benefit of the high school coaches. This is something that the high school coaches appreciate, and this may be done. However, we are limited to a total of 20 contests, and either the tournament in Kansas will have to be eliminated or the trip to East Lansing. We are now negotiating for the East Lansing trip. It would come during the opening of the second semester, and the game would be played on February 10th, Saturday night. Iowa State would be playing Oklahoma at Norman, and both Iowa State and Kansas would be traveling and arrive here Monday in time for a game with Louie Menze's championship, ambitious Cyclones.
