

4244 Pleasant St.
St. Louis, Mo.
July 27, 1942

Dear Mr. Allen,

This letter is a little surprising to you, isn't it? There are two reasons for my writing you, one being that I want to explain to you why I left there last year, and the other being I would like to come back up there to school.

When I came up to Kansas I had a hundred dollars me. I asked Otto Rost if he thought this was enough money, and he said yes. Therefore I