Quiring

ball machinery we've seen in many a day. We're referring to Walter Quiring, forward on the high school basketball team. He's a shot maker all right, still ranking high among the Valley's scorers. To make shots, you've got to get the ball and that's where Quiring really excels. He has speed, deception, a good dribble, basketball hands, and as indicated by the quoted statement, a great team temperament. We're putting Quiring on the spot, maybe—but we've got to tip you to watch him. Barring the uncertainties of these perilous, he's destined for collegiate stardom.
