

a great deal happier, as she knows little of Kansas.

If it isn't too much trouble I would like to know what my first step is as I arrive in Lawrence.

Shall I go to the quarters <sup>which</sup> you have selected or come directly to your office?

This <sup>may seem</sup> foolish because it is a month off, but I like to be explicit and exact.

Well I shall take no more of your valuable time and wish to thank you again for your last encouraging letter.
