

going to have plenty of trouble with these two games as Miller is not nearly well, and those teams are both tough this year. With the semester coming on the rest that we will get during the vacation will do Miller's knee a lot of good. However, we have been forced to play six games in sixteen days, just at a time when we are lowest in our efficiency scale.

But we shouldn't cry because we have had our share of victories over the years, and it is about time for some of these boys to get even with us. We will be in there next year with a hustling ball club and we will be a lot better off than we are this year.

Good luck to you, Buck, and thank you for writing as you did. Rest assured that I appreciate your kindness in writing.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
