Dear Phog:

Your letter of August 5 is at hand.
I sent Mr. Keith's message along to John Doyle with the comment that there was considerable basis for the complaint. John's reaction was not favorable, but the proper approach to the problem is through action by the National Committee. He will follow instructions that have the backing of the committee.
This year, as last, first place in the Guide will be occupied by the N. B. A. A. Tournament. This tends to lessen the importance of first place among the leagues and conferences. I will see that this item is on the agenda for our next meeting.

Thanks for your good wishes, and the same to you and your family.

Sincerely yours,

Oswald Tower
