American Sports Publishing Company
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Doyle:

I congratulate you upon your splendid get-up of Dr. Naismith's obituary, and I do like the way you switched the paragraphs to keep the family record continuity. I also like the way you put the heading in capital letters on the ORIGINAL RULES OF BASKETBALL, 1892. That sets it off in a very splendid fashion.

I appreciate your thoughtfulness in returning this copy for o.k. and I heartily thank you as well as commend you for the get-up. It is very pleasing to me.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation
Varsity Basketball Coach
