My dear Dr Allen

Your wire and Dan Partner's selection both received. It is not too late at all. We are just trying to whip the book into shape, now that the Football Guide is on the press. But it will not be long before we have the old basketball bible ready for the cognoscenti.

I suppose you are furbishing up the old armor for another season of jousts?

So, with all good wishes--

Faithfully yours

John Doyle
