Mr. C. O. Burnside,
Carpenter Paper Co.,
Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dear Cob:

As chairman of the Fifth District of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, we ask different newspaper men or others, but preferably newspaper men, to write a review of the conference basketball season for the Basketball Guide. Leighton Housh, of the Des Moines Register-Tribune, is writing the review of the Missouri Valley Conference; C. E. McBride, sports editor of the Kansas City Star, is writing the Big Six Conference; Carlos Hobbs, of the Topeka State Journal, is writing the Kansas Conference; Kenneth Simons, of the Pittsburg Sun, is writing the Central Conference; and I want you to tell me who is competent to write the two Oklahoma conferences - the Teachers College Conference and the Collegiate Conference. Would you drop me a line when it is convenient for you?

I have written Al Wellhausen and told him to stop by and see you at his first opportunity. I am wondering if he has done that. I received a letter from Paul Endacott yesterday saying that Fred Pralle had reported at work August first, and they like him very much. Elwyn Dees reported at Stillwater the first of August and he is expecting to look you up as soon as his entourage gets to Oklahoma City for the high school play-off. Elwyn is returning here this Friday for a day, preparatory to moving his wife and young daughter from the hospital to his wife's home in Nebraska for a few weeks prior to their moving to Stillwater.

I trust that Mrs. Burnside and young C.O.B. are well. My kindest regards to you and your good family.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
