

August 5, 1938.

Mr. Frank Root,
Basketball Coach,
Kansas State College,
Manhattan, Kansas.

Dear Frank:

Its doggone queer to me that my letters don't get to you. I think Uncle Sam down in Manhattan-way must lost my letters some way. I am sending you a copy of the letter written June 6. This letter was enclosed with the pictures. Did you open the pictures, or did you just fire them on back to the publicity man?

I am just endeavoring to show you that the chairman from this district of the N.C.A.A. was desirous of getting Frank Root and Kansas State's picture in the Guide.

Thank you for your good wishes regarding a swell summer. It has been a swell summer, hasn't it, Frank? And these Kansas crops are going to make everybody happy, whether the politicians do or not.

With continued good wishes for a happy and prosperous summer, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
