LAWRENCE, Kan., Nov. .---The first annual "Basketball Clinic" at the University of Kansas will be held Saturday afternoon. Invitations to attend the clinic have been extended to high school basketball coaches and players of Kansas and neighboring states.

Dr. F.C. Allen, Jayhawk cage coach, is conducting the clinic and will be assisted by Tom Scott, Warrensburg Teachers coach. Kansas and Warrensburg open the basketball season Saturday night and those attending the clinic will be guests of the University at the game.

At suitable times Saturday afternoon there will be words of greeting from Chancellor E.H. Lindley and from Gwinn Henry, director of athletics at the University. There also will be remarks by E.A. Thomas, executive secretary of the Kansas State High School Activities Association, and a talk of officiating by E.C. Quigley, veteran sports official and supervisor of umpires in the National League.

Both Dr. Allen and Coach Scott will use the members of their squads for demonstration purposes.

At 2:30 Saturday afternoon Coach Scott and his team will open the clinic program with the following demonstrations:

1. Ball tipping practice.
2. Drill for enlarging peripheral vision.
3. Defensive practice in switching men when screened out of play.
4. Drills for deception in under-basket shooting
5. Dribbling, stopping and pivoting drill.

This will be a 30 minute exhibition, as will be the following demonstration by Dr. Allen and his squad:

1. Mass defense drill.
2. Mass offense drill.
3. Set offense against man-to-man defense.
4. Set offense against zone defense.
5. Fast break offensive.

After the demonstration, two sets of film will be shown.

Both are basketball technique films.
