

Winner Will Take Undisputed First Place in Cage Standings

K. S. DEFENSE STRONG

Engleman Has Not Been Stopped Yet and K.U. Will Rely on His Aim

Probable Lineup

Kansas	Pos	Kansas State
Engleman	F	Horacek
Hunter	F	Howe
Allen	C	Guy
Kline	G	Holstrom
Sollenberger	G	Beaumont

Officials—Parke Carroll, Kansas City U., and Ted O'Sullivan, Missouri.

Time—7:30 o'clock.

A victory tonight would place either Kansas or Kansas State in undisputed first place in the Big Six basketball standings—at least for a day or so.

Each team has won two conference victories and each has suffered a defeat.

A Kansas squad of ten men left here by auto at noon today for Manhattan. Tonight's game will start at 7:30 o'clock before a limited crowd, including Gov. Payne Ratner, in Nichols gymnasium.

K. U. hopes are pinned on Howard Engleman and Bobby Allen. Engleman hasn't been stopped so far this season by conference foes. Coach Jack Gardner has scouted the Jayhawkers three times so far and may have devised a plan for bottling up the blond shotmaster.

The Ninety-first Game

Tonight's will be the ninety-first game to be played by the two schools since 1907. The University has been victorious 60 times.

Leading scorer for Kansas State is chunky Jack Horacek who has averaged seven points in three contests. He tied for eighth in the scoring last season with a 6.8 average.

The Wildcats have the oldest team in the conference, members of the starting five averaging 22.8

Big Six Standings

	W	L	Pct	Pts	OP
Kansas	2	1	.667	123	124
Oklahoma	2	1	.667	118	101
Kansas State	2	1	.667	99	101
Iowa State	1	1	.500	81	81
Nebraska	1	2	.333	94	98
Missouri	0	2	.000	78	88

Games This Week

Tonight—Kansas at Kansas State. Missouri at Nebraska.

Friday—Missouri at Oklahoma.

Saturday—Nebraska at Iowa State.

years. Oldest man is Tom Guy, a newcomer from Coffeyville, who is 26.

Coach Phog Allen's team won both games from K-State last year, 34-33 at Lawrence and 44-33 at Manhattan. The last time the Wildcats defeated K. U. was in 1937 when they knocked the Jayhawks out of undisputed first place by a 33-32 overtime victory.