Dear Moe:

When you were in Lawrence the last time I spoke to you I stated that I thought O'Sullivan and Chuck Hyatt, the two officials agreed upon for the Oklahoma-Kansas game on March 7, could not work. I find it is the Oklahoma Aggie-Kansas game on March 11 when O'Sullivan could not work; therefore O'Sullivan will be with us on March 7 and the next man in line is Eddie Hogue. We have asked him to serve as per our agreement with Bruce Drake.

Should anything happen you are next in line and Larson follows you. Kindly disregard our conversation which took place in the gymnasium when I asked you to work. When I heard from Bruce Drake I discovered that O'Sullivan could work and I was laboring under the impression that it was the Oklahoma game instead of the Oklahoma A. and M. game.

I trust this has caused you no inconvenience.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation
