Dear Dr. Allen:

Received all of your communications for which I thank you.

Please be advised that the Kansas-De Paul game will go on promptly at 8:15. You will be given a typewritten copy of instructions with reference to the method of going to the Stadium, and dressing room information, etc. at the Basketball Writers' Luncheon.

The luncheon takes place at the Boston Oyster House, which is located right in the Hotel. In other words, when you check into the Hotel you merely need to ask for directions with reference to the stairway leading down to the Boston Oyster House. We have a private dining room in this lovely dining room reserved for us. The attendants are instructed with reference to directing you to the proper room.

The home teams wear white so I presume you will wear your customary red traveling uniforms. I have instructed the box office to mail the tickets to Mr. Mons. Your other ticket requests will be disposed of when I see you Friday.

You have been scheduled to appear again with Bob Elson on Radio Station W G N at 6:15 Friday night. This will be concluded at 6:30 which should permit you to make your other engagement. Elson is the outstanding announcer in the Middle West and his Station is the outstanding sports Station in the Country.

Very sincerely yours,
