

January 24, 1942.

Mr. Arthur Morse,
10 So. LaSalle St.,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Arthur:

I am afraid that I cannot attend your luncheon on Friday, the 30th. We will not get in to Chicago until 1:15 p.m. on the Rock Island. I had made several other appointments in Chicago as soon as I arrive, and while we are coming to the Morrison Hotel I am afraid it would be nearly 1:45 at least, even if the train is on time, before we would get to our rooms and have the boys settled.

I do not want to delay your luncheon because I realize that these newspaper men will want to get back to their desks. However, if you want to push the luncheon over later or have me come in at the finish of it, then that would be just as satisfactory for me. I will be glad to cooperate with you in every possible way. You advise me what you desire.

Now, may I get you to take care of my daughter and her husband's family in Chicago? Mrs. Allen will also be in this group. I would like to have seven tickets in a good location for my family. I am writing to my son-in-law, Mr. Elwood Mons, at the Marshall Field Garden Apartments, 1423 Hudson Avenue, Apartment 3-a, Chicago, asking that he get in touch with you and make arrangements so that they will have the tickets ahead of time. If these tickets are complimentary Mr. Mons will pay the tax. If they are not complimentary please charge them to our account and we will handle the thing in our usual way. Elwood Mons is with the Hill-Clarke Machinery Company at 649 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, so if you do not catch him at his residence you can get him at his office.

I will appreciate your early attention to this detail.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.
