

SECURITY NATIONAL BANK

MINNESOTA AT 7TH

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS

June 24, 1939.

Mr. Al Wellhausen
2213 North Kate Street
Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dear Mr. Wellhausen:

Your note of $119.55 will be due on July 2nd, together with interest amounting to $7.17.

When we extended this note the last time it was our understanding that you would make some reductions on the principal during the year. However, you have not done this. It now becomes necessary for us to insist that some payment be made because we feel that we have carried the note as long as can reasonably be expected of us unless regular reductions are made.

I hope you will let me hear from you at once.

Very truly yours,

President.
