Dear Phog:

I am trying to arrange my basketball schedule for the season 1940-41. I was wondering if you would care to play us a game next year, either at Lawrence or at Warrensburg. Either place would be satisfactory with me.

My boys have enjoyed the two games with you the past two years as they feel that they can learn a lot from your splendid teams. I would like to congratulate you again on the very successful season that you have enjoyed this year. May the same success be yours again next year.

If you would like such a game for the coming season, I would appreciate it very much, and I think we could make a creditable showing.

Best wishes and kindest personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Tom Scott
