

August 14, 1939.

Mr. Bus Ham, Sports Editor,
The Daily Oklahoman,
Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dear Bus:

I have your letter of June 10th in which you stated Mr. Donart, Henry Iba and several others of you will probably have a meeting soon to definitely decide what shall be done about the playing floor. Since I have not heard from you I thought I would just drop a note to check up and see how things are.

If you haven't spent any money on the floor, the National Collegiate Association has faintly discussed a possible policy of playing the district elimination tournaments on one of the college floors. This has not been decided on, but the National Collegiate lost money on their finals at Northwestern and they want to get out of the hole. I remember last year Henry Iba said if we had played at Stillwater he would have given us a very generous guarantee.

Now, Bus, it might be possible that we would have to do such a thing, but I think not. I am writing to protect you, Mr. Donart and all of us in this before any money is expended.

I am leaving for Atlanta, Georgia, to conduct a coaching school down there, and will return about September 1st.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH