

October 15, 1943.

Mr. Lew Lane, Athletic Director,
Rockhurst College,
Kansas City, Missouri.

Dear Lew:

I would suggest that we play in Kansas City on December 4. I believe that there is a conference meeting of officials along about that time, and I think we would get a better crowd than at any other time. If this is agreeable to you, let's count on that date.

Now, regarding the other date here in Lawrence, I see that the Kansas Aggies have decided to play basketball which will necessitate a re-arranging of our schedule during the conference season, but we might be able to play you here in Lawrence during December. I see no reason why we shouldn't get these games out of the way, and use them as much as possible for practice periods.

I think it would be a good plan, if you possibly can, to come to Lawrence nine days later and play here on December 13th. It would give us a good practice game before the Christmas holidays. What do you say?

We will, of course, pay your expenses, but we will decide on a definite amount. I do not look for much of a crowd here, but each of us will make our velvet on the Kansas City game.

Let me hear from you at your early convenience.

Cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH

cc - Clarence Hoff.