

January 7, 1943.

Mr. Joe Hasel,
The Blue Network,
RCA Building,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Joe:

As I promised you, I am sending you an autographed copy of my book, "Better Basketball". I believe that you will find some interesting reading in this. We have some yarns in the back of the book, The Tales of Yesteryears, which I hope will prove of some interest to you.

The standardized basketball nomenclature is found on page 29, and I would also like to call your attention to the discussion of practical research in basketball on pages 19 to 29. I have also dealt with individual defense, team defense, individual offense, team offense, just about the way Clair Bee's new books by Barnes are handled, I am told.

Realizing that the high school coach had very little training on treatment of athletic injuries, I wrote a chapter for them.

I believe it is a very comprehensive book; at least, I worked hard enough on it.

It was a great pleasure to make your acquaintance, Joe, and if you ever come out in the Indian and buffalo country be sure to let us know. Certainly if we come back to New York we will not forget that you reside in room 404 RCA Building.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH