Mr. Ned Irish,
9 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York City.

Dear Ned:

Bernard Passman, a Yiddish boy from Brooklyn, who played end on our football team, has asked for three tickets, two for his parents and one for himself. I am wondering if you would leave three of the student tickets, such as you expect to give to the squad, for this boy.

I dislike to bother you with this but I am on the spot, so presume it would be best to fix him up. I would suggest that you leave the three tickets at the Garden and let him pay the tax. Thanks, Ned.

Thank you very much for your letter of the 18th concerning the Hotel Philadelphian. We are making reservations there.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
