Dear Chip:

I stopped by to see you but was sorry to learn of your illness. The boys stated that you were out for the day. That weather that we ran into was enough to slay both man and beast, but I trust that you have recovered from the bad cold and inclement weather.

It was a pleasure to have met you and I trust that our paths will cross again. If there is anything at any time that I can do for you, please feel free to call upon me.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
