

January 7, 1943.

Mr. Ned Irish,
9 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York City.

Dear Ned:

We returned home and I want to thank you for your hospitality and generosity in taking care of us. I thought you did a swell job, and our boys were all appreciative of your very careful planning of details.

May I congratulate you on being a master of details, which of course means outstanding success for any man who practices these virtues.

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.