Dear Bob:

Mother just called me on the phone and said that Eleanor wanted some extra tickets. Let me know how many you want so that we can make arrangements early. If you have any additional names to add to your list we can take care of those.

We are staying at the Hotel Belvedere, just across the street from Madison Square Garden. I have written them for prices, and if you and Jean and Eleanor and Gil are planning to be in New York I thought you could stay at the same hotel where we have special rates. You and Gil could stay together and Eleanor and Jean could share a room.

After the game we will have a little party, and you may feel free to invite your friends to eat with our boys after the game.

Affectionately,
