Dear Ned:

I am sorry for the delay in replying to your kind letter of August 31st, but I want to assure you that we will be very happy to use the Hotel Belvedere, as per your recommendation, and you may tell Mr. Fechtman that we will use it. We will be glad to cooperate with you whenever possible as I know you have our best interests at heart, as we have yours, because it all adds up to a successful and pleasant trip.

I think you have an author's copy of my book, "Better Basketball", and I want to call your attention to page 7 where we mention the Buffalo Germans.

I have your letter of September 16th, and wish to say that it is entirely acceptable that we use the Goldsmith X9L ball. I imagine that is the stitched ball, which is all right.

The only mention that we have made of the game is in the letter that I sent to my basketball squad, a copy of which I am enclosing. I didn't know that there was any desire on your part to withhold that information, and while we have not given it to the papers, we have sent the schedule to the boys and it is common knowledge among them. We will give no release on the eastern dates.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,

Dear Phog:-

It is my understanding that the New York City schools which use the Madison Square Garden court have already sent word to their prospective opponents on this court for the 1942-43 season that the Goldsmith X9L ball would be used for all games. This note is just a reminder and a follow up since I have at the present time taken delivery on the balls which will be used during the coming season. This ball was the type which the coaches of the local teams requested me to order.

It is tentatively planned to release the complete Madison Square Garden basketball schedule on or about October 20th. We would appreciate it if you have not already released your schedule if you could hold up any reference to your eastern trip until after that date.

Lee Blaser, manager of the Buffalo Athletic Club, has been kind enough to again make the facilities of that club available to the college teams which are planning to compete in Buffalo during the 1942-43 season. I feel that the arrangements and accommodations offered by his organization are superior to any hotel accommodations available and would suggest that you avail yourself of this opportunity.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Phog:-

I have made a rather comprehensive study of the hotel situation for the college basketball teams that will visit New York this coming season. Following this survey I would like to recommend that in making your plans for the New York trip you plan your stay at the Hotel Belvedere, 319 West 48th Street, New York City, of which Mr. George A. Fechtman is the manager.

I feel certain that this arrangement will be to the best advantage of the visiting teams and completely satisfactory in all ways. The Belvedere is semi-residential in character and has slightly larger rooms than other hotels on the West Side. It has the outstanding advantage of having an entrance on 49th Street which is just across the street from the entrance which is used by the players in entering Madison Square Garden. The hotel has been recently redecorated, and Mr. Fechtman assures me that he will place your squad all on one floor in adjacent rooms at the rate of $2.00 per man for twin-bedded rooms with bath, etc. This is a remarkably good value in rooms at this time since most of the hotels have raised their rates and some of the larger transient hotels, according to newspaper reports, have been taken over by the Army.

An additional reason why I feel that this hotel will have an advantage to visiting teams is its accessibility to the Garden for players in the event that it should be necessary for the players to dress and use their hotel rooms for showers after the game. The players could simply step across the street in their warmup suits without running the danger of catching cold if staying at a hotel further from the Garden. The uncertainty of the fuel situation here in New York makes it likely that we might have to curtail on our heating which would affect the hot water supply in our dressing rooms.

In addition, taxi cabs are bound to be limited and the nearer the boys are to the Garden the better off it will be for your squad.

Mr. Fechtman will undoubtedly get in touch with you concerning reservations. I hope that you will be able to make your stay in New York at the Belvedere.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Ned:

Your letter of the 21st instant arrived this morning and I immediately checked up with our Athletic Office concerning the contracts with St. Bonaventure and Fordham.

The contracts were signed by Mr. Gwinn Henry, Director of Athletics, and mailed on May 11th with a letter to Carroll (Mike) Reilly, of St. Bonaventure, and to Jack Coffey at Fordham. When I first saw the carbon copy of the correspondence I noticed that Reilly's letter was sent to St. Bonaventure, New York, and thought that it should have been Buffalo, but we looked up the correspondence from him and that is their station - St. Bonaventure.

There was only one error in Mr. Henry's letter - he said the game was to be in New York City, when it should be Buffalo.

We have one copy of the contracts here. I remember Mr. Earl Falkenstien, our financial secretary, saying that the contracts had been sent in triplicate, so Mr. Henry signed them and two copies were returned. We have the third copy here.

There is one interesting angle, Ned, that might make for publicity. In 1905 I played with the Kansas City Athletic Club when we beat the Buffalo Germans in a series of three games in Kansas City for the so-called world's championship. I was right guard and the manager of the Kansas City Athletic Club team. The first game they beat us 40-36, and the next game we beat them 30-28, and the last game we beat them 45-14. Dr. Naismith refereed the third game as the two teams had had some difficulty with the previous officiating.

I noticed in Converse's yearbook of the past year a photograph of the Buffalo Germans who played in that game. They were physicians and prominent citizens of Buffalo. It might be interesting to arrange some sort of a get-together with the old-timers for that night. I remember Herdt, Faust, Manweiler, Miller, and so forth. This is just an angle that might arouse some interest.

I am glad that the season looks promising. I believe that we will have a pretty good team.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

Dear Doc:-

I am today requesting Jack Coffey of Fordham and Mike Reilly of St. Bonaventure to forward to Gwinn Henry formal agreements confirming your game in Buffalo on Saturday, December 26th, and in New York on Monday, December 28th. Your expenses in amount of $2,080.00 covering reimbursement for a party of fifteen will be underwritten by Fordham in the amount of $1,500.00 and by St. Bonaventure in the amount of $580.00.

I am very pleased that you were able to work this out, and am sure that your squad will not have the same bad luck concerning its physical condition that hampered your efforts on the last trip here.

Dear Ned:

I am confirming our game with St. Bonaventure in Memorial Auditorium, Buffalo, for December 26, and Fordham University in New York on December 28, as per your letter of April 23rd. We are following your suggestions of taking on St. Bonaventure instead of Temple, as I quite agree with you that the gate receipts will doubtless be better in Buffalo.

You state in your letter you will conform to our arrangements of 1940. In your letter as of April 15, 1940, you stated that you will give us for expenses $2080. Of this amount $1500 would be reimbursed by Fordham and $580 by Temple. You may have the athletic directors of St. Bonaventure and Fordham send contracts to Mr. Gwinn Henry, the Director of Athletics at the University of Kansas. I desire to bring my customary fifteen men.

I believe that our boys will give a better account of themselves this next year than they did in their first venture in New York and Philadelphia. Although we have an entirely new personnel, the boys are a little more aggressive and I believe can stand the elements better. We had a rather sad experience on our trip to New York of each one of the boys taking flu. We did not try to alibi for Bobby Allen and two of the other boys who were flat on their backs most of the way to New York.

With all good wishes, I am

Dear Doc:-

The only place where there will be a game played on Monday, December 28th, is in Madison Square Garden. I imagine that we could get Fordham for that date, although they are also scheduled to play in the Garden on Saturday, January 2nd, and it would mean two games in the same week. I do not think, however, that Monday and Saturday will be too much.

In order to play on the 26th and 28th, therefore, it would be necessary for you to schedule a game in Buffalo or Philadelphia. On Saturday, December 26th, Temple would be available in Convention Hall, Philadelphia, and St. Bonaventure in Memorial Auditorium, Buffalo. Either would be on a direct line and entail no additional expense in transportation. My honest opinion is that the gate receipts in Buffalo would probably exceed the Philadelphia gate receipts by 20 to 25%. Southern California will be playing Canisius in Buffalo on Saturday, December 26th. There would be no difference in the reimbursement of expenses for either place as we would conform to our arrangement of 1940.

The auditorium in Buffalo seats about the same as Convention Hall in Philadelphia, but playing conditions are much better.

Please let me know as soon as possible whether you prefer the Temple game in Philadelphia or the St. Bonaventure game in Buffalo.

Dear Doc:

I have just received a confirmation from Brigham Young of its negotiation with Long Island which would as I explained in my letter last week closes up the possibility of scheduling your team on Saturday, December 12th.

If it was possible to schedule Fordham in the Garden on Saturday night, December 26th, would this make any difference in your plans. You could play this game and return to Lawrence to give you plenty of time for work during the vacation period prior to your conference opening. Naturally, for a single game the guaranteed reimbursement would not be as high as for two or three games, but I am certain that the reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $1250 for the single game here plus your participation would more than cover expenses of the trip.

The Saturday night date during the Christmas holidays period has been the most desirable from a gate standpoint the last few years. Last December we drew over $19,000, after deducting Federal taxes. I feel confident that your participation in the game with Fordham on this date would exceed $1250, so that you would get a total of $2500 or more for the single game.

Mr. Ned Irish,

Dear Ned:

Thank you for your very good letter of the first instant. Please understand that I fully realize that it is necessary for you to allocate these dates to the various schools and for them to arrange their schedules accordingly. I also realize that these teams which have been playing traditional opponents year in and year out are the ones to be considered.

It was just a thought I had of planning a schedule with Henry Iba that caused me to think about going east. I have never believed that the team could learn many fundamentals while playing a traveling schedule. Personally, I have experienced the best teams when I have stayed home during Christmas vacation and worked on fundamentals. And too, after a long trip, I have always noticed that a team generally slumped when they got back home.

For that reason I have never been enthusiastic about making a long trip and then jumping into a conference schedule. Personally, I would much rather win my conference championship than to have an all-victorious team outside of the conference.

For that reason, Ned, I wanted to play an early schedule if I made a trip, and then get back in time to readjust ourselves. So it is with no idea of disappointment that I am deciding not to make the trip east this coming year. Maybe in another year we will be in a better position to negotiate the trip. Many of my boys were sophomores, and they should be much better with seasoning.

Thanking you for your very courteous treatment at all times, and with kindest personal regards, I am

Dear Doc:

I had just finished talking with Jack Coffey and Ed Kelleher up at Fordham when your letter of March 30th, arrived advancing the idea of playing here early in December. Since your note earlier in the month I had been setting up your date to fall during the same time as your trip of two years ago.

Fordham is quite anxious to schedule your team on its holiday date in the Garden. This would be the first game for Fordham in the Garden according to our schedule for the home teams. There will be two dates in the Garden prior to the holidays, Saturday, December 12th, and Saturday, December 19th. City College and Long Island University have the use of the Garden court on Saturday, December 12th, with New York University and St. John's having the court on Saturday, December 19th. It is my understanding from the officials at these institutions that they have entered or completed negotiations for games on this date. City College plans to play Oklahoma A. & M. on Saturday, December 12th, as it has done for the past three years. Long Island University has been in touch with Brigham Young for a game on the same date. New York University has completed arrangements with Syracuse University for its game on December 19th, and Joe Lapchick of St. John's informs me that he has been in touch with Bruce Drake of Oklahoma University to continue their game on December 19th.

I do not know whether City and Long Island have definitely closed with Oklahoma A. & M. and Brigham Young, so I cannot be very specific on the possibility of your coming here on that date. If you can adjust your contemplated games between Christmas and New Year's I am sure that the arrangements could be satisfactorily completed without delay for a game with Fordham in the Garden, Canisius in Memorial Auditorium, Buffalo and Temple, St. Joseph's or LaSalle in Convention Hall, Philadelphia.
