

December 3, 1942.

Mr. Ned Irish,
9 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York City.

Dear Ned:

There are some people in New York, like Waldo Bowman who is editor of the Engineering Record of the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, and who played on my ever-victorious team of 1923; Dean George A. Esterly, of Newark University, one of our alumni, and a great follower of athletics; and other key people in New York for whom I would like tickets for the game on the 28th. I will send you a list in a few days.

Things are shaping up nicely and we believe we will have a pretty good team, although we are slow in starting. Some of our star performers - Evans, Schmellbacher, and others, have been on the football team, and have not had much practice as yet.

Arrangements have been made for us to stop at the Hotel Belvedere.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
