

NAVAL AVIATION PRE-FLIGHT SCHOOL
Iowa City, Iowa

May 28, 1942.

Dear Phog:

Colonel Bierman has asked me to reply to your letter of May 25th concerning a game in Kansas City on January 29th. This date is entirely satisfactory to us and we will put it down in our schedule as a definite date.

The financial arrangement, which you suggested, of a $200 guarantee with an option of 50% of the gross receipts (after deducting 20% for auditorium rental and other official expenses) is satisfactory.

One thing is certain, Rollie Williams will not be coaching the University of Iowa basketball team. He is at Annapolis now, taking the indoctrination course and will probably be sent here as head basketball coach of the Naval Aviation Pre-Flight School. If Rollie does not head up our basketball, Ed Blickel, who has been Harold Olsen's assistant at Ohio State, will be in charge of our outfit.

We are looking forward to a great athletic year. Two hundred forty two cadets came in this morning and by the time of our game with you we should have approximately 1800 fine boys from which to select a team.

With kindest personal regards,

Larry Snyder

Larry Snyder,
Lieutenant Commander, USNR,
