

"BOMBERS"

Team: An independent team, now playing in the Heart of America League in Kansas City. All players are signed with the A.A.U.

Players: 10 players for out-of-town games and 15 players for home games. All of them are employed by North American Aviation.

Coach: Forest A. "Piggy" Fox, who used to play with the K.C.A.C., Y.M.C.A., Tabernacle, and Kansas City Junior College. He was the forward playing mate of Red DiBernardi when the K.C.A.C. had the world famous cage teams.

Colors: Blue and Gold. Gold playing shirts and Blue satin playing pants. Warm-ups are All Blue Satin.

PLAYER PERSONALITIES:

Bill Martin, guard, 6 ft. 3 in., played with the Faultless Laundry team when they were Naismith League champions. A nice shot and smooth ball handler.

Clarence Starks, center, 6 ft. 5 in., played with St. Joseph Junior College and Goetz beer team of St. Joe. Good on the post and a swell rebound man.

Jack Northrup, center, 6 ft. 2 in., played at Manual high in K.C.Mo. Is one of the leading scorers in the Heart of America league. Went to L.S.U. as a frosh.

Art Campbell, forward, 6 ft. 2 in., is ~~is~~ the second high scorer in the Heart of America league. Good shot from either side.

Bill Bond, guard, 6 ft. 2 in., also played with the Faultless Laundry team when they were Naismith Champions. A good long shot and a swell rebound man.

Bob Clark, forward, 6 ft. 1 in., played at Shawnee-Mission high; scored 22 points against the Quartermasters earlier this season. Good ball handler and capable of scoring anytime.

Russ Savage, guard, 6 ft. 2 in., a whale of a rebounder; played with Kansas City, Kan. Junior College two years.

Art Cook, guard, 6 ft. 2 in., played frosh ball at the University of Minnesota; a rugged guard and a good shot.

Dave Gragg, center, 6 ft. 5 in., played with Liberty, Mo. high school champions for three years; good rebound man and shoots well from post position.

Kenneth Middleton, forward, 5 ft. 8 in., has played 13 years of basketball with almost every independent team around here. Still capable of scoring 15 points a game.