LOUIS G. LOWER, ~~Acting~~ Director

Dear Sir:

The title is not exactly correct as I am now called the Assistant Director. I have taken over Louis Lower's job and Lou, as you know, has moved up to the Director position.

I am glad to know that you are going to have several basketball games in the Auditorium during the winter months. I am enclosing contracts for your game on January 30, 1943 with the Great Lakes Naval Training Station and we are holding January 29 for you in case that you want to have a game before you play the sailors.

For your game with the Rockhurst College, the best night available at the present time is Friday, December 11; however, the 15th and 16th are still open in case you might have to change the date of the Creighton game. Saturday, December 12 has already been booked, however, we could give you most any day during the week of December 7 to 11 as these are all open at the present time.

We are holding the above dates for you until we receive your final word as to what arrangements you have made for Rockhurst and Oklahoma "Aggies", if you have an opportunity to play them.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "C. B. Hoff".

Clarence B. Hoff,
Assistant Director.
