

July 5, 1940.

Mr. Henry Levitt,
420-422 East Douglas Ave.,
Wichita, Kansas.

Dear Henry:

I had written Bill quite some time ago and thought perhaps that he had abdicated or maybe the "fifth columnists" had gotten after him. But your letter of the 27th advised me differently.

The next day after your letter was received I had a letter from Al Gebert. I have written Al today, telling him that I am teaching eight weeks in the Summer Session here, which will end August 7th. I will then go to the University of Texas at Austin for a week, and the following week I will be at Topeka.

What are your plans for the summer? Will you be in Wichita most of the time? As soon as I have your schedule I will endeavor to drop down at your convenience and talk over the terms of the contract. It might be a good idea for you and me to have a discussion before the contract is drawn up so that there would be no misunderstanding. I am sure that there will be no hitch, but I prefer to have a personal talk.

I will not be making a special trip to Wichita for this purpose as long as I have other business to attend to on my way to Wichita.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH