

June 8, 1939.

Mr. J. H. Stewart,
Director of Athletics,
Southern Methodist University,
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Jimmie:

Desiring to help you all that I can, and remembering that Bruce Drake told me that he desired to play you on the 18th, I accepted the 15th and 16th with you knowing that Bruce had asked me to play you on those dates so that he could play you on the 18th.

Now, Jimmie, I hope that this letter to Bruce Drake brings you your desire. If not, we will consider the 15th and 16th definitely closed. But we do have a conflict here at the University of Texas in which our School of Fine Arts would desire this week-end, and it would please Dean Searthout very much if you could play here on Monday and Tuesday. Then you could meet Bruce on the way up. That would make no difference to us at all. It would not hurt our game and it would be a means of accommodating our Dean Searthout and you.

Therefore, so far as I am concerned, I would prefer Monday and Tuesday, the 16th and 17th, over these other dates, and if you can work it out with Bruce you will have the gratitude of our dean. I personally would like to accommodate him if possible. If, however, you cannot make this change we will stand by our previous agreement.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
