SOUTH NORWOOD.

My dear Mr Noble.

Many thanks for your charming letter and the enticing little volume which accompanied it. I'm afraid I shall be at Shere on Monday, but it is not often that I go away and I hope you will arrange a day to suit yourself to come over. I'm sending a copy of the 'White Company' in the hope that it won't bore you. Excuse this hurried scrawl as I am due at a cricket match -

With kind regards to yourself and to your family circle which must be a charming one

Yours very truly

Alonan Doyle.
