

Windsor Castle

Aug: 23^d 1839.

The Queen has just received Lord John Russell's communications.

As the Queen is not very well acquainted with Lord Coventry, she would be glad if the audience could be avoided, at all events, delayed till the Queen's return to London.

I have Coventry

has no very pressing business to desire to see the same, and if Lord John thinks it could be arranged
without offending Lord Coventry, she would be glad if this could be done. —

1827 Aug 29

The Queen

66