

The Outlook

September 1914

Dear Sir:

Your letter gives me pleasure. It is very helpful possible for me to say I should have been see you. But I am not prepared to do so. I am sorry, on my part, that I cannot do so. I am very sorry. With best wishes, I am, Sir, Yours very truly,
Alfred Jones

Alfred Jones