

The Outlook

287 Fourth Avenue
New York

Office of Theodore Roosevelt

January 19th, 1912.

Dear Mr. Robinson:

I thank you for your letter. I have at once submitted it to the Outlook. I hope they will be able to get you to write for them.

I trust I need not say that I know and greatly value your work.

Faithfully yours

T. Roosevelt

Mr. E. Kay Robinson

210 Strand

London, W. C.