John Quincy Adams
President of the United States of America.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

Know Ye, That, in pursuance of the Acts of Congress appropriating and granting Land to the late Army of the United States, passed on and since the sixth day of May, 1812, Garrick H. Ten Broek having deposited in the General Land-Office a Warrant in his favour, numbered 22,479 there is granted unto the said Garrick H. Ten Broek late a Musician in Burbank's Company of the fifth Regiment of Infantry, and to his heirs, a certain Tract of Land, containing one hundred and sixty acres being the North West 1/4 of Section fourteen of Township three North in Range Eight West in the Tract appropriated (by the Acts aforesaid) for Military Bounties, in the Territory of Arkansas

To have and to hold the said quarter Section of Land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said Garrick H. Ten Broek and to his heirs and assigns for ever,

In Testimony whereof, I have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land-Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my Hand, at the City of Washington, this seventh day of November in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five and of the Independence of the United States of America the forty-fifth. J. Q. Adams

By the President,

G. J. Graham Commissioner of the General Land-Office.
