My dear Lane

I am awfully sorry to seem but - I can't
So can't answer - write "Yours very truly" to noble lords I don't know or to statesmen I know personally. your typist will not have to re-type the 2nd - pages leaving the "Yours" business blank.

Also Lulu Harcourt is a Lord now, isn't he?

Yours ever
W. J. Locke
