

cin
9
56 Euston Square, London, N.W.

Thursday evening.

My dear Mr Gilchrist

Please accept my little note of sympathy in your suffering state; for William showed me a letter from you some days ago which gives a sad account of your health. I hope you are already better, that the worst is over at last, and that you are tasting the sweets of returning health and strength; or if not I hope at least