

56 Euston Square, N. W.

7th April.

My dear Mrs Gilchrist

I might not know how to excuse my not having yet returned your kind call, were it not that the weather has been against me and I am not yet quite hardy.

Will you now pardon me, accept my Mother's kind remembrance, and favour us by dining with us next Tuesday (13th) at 6.30?

We hope Mr Percy Gilchrist will give us pleasure by accompanying us
