

am not certain) the 1st and 3^d
"Epiphany" and the "Nunc Dimittis." But then there are little bits elsewhere by no means to be set too down: as the stanza beginning "Oftentimes a sleepless infant"
and that strictly lovely line
"Love is of loveliness the root."

Do you know that our dear friend Mr. Shields is ill at Brighton? So at least we heard a day or two ago and my Mother and I are grieved for him. I find your "Xmas Faggot" cover is his handiwork: what an enviable cover!

Pray receive my Mother's remembrances and let me trust always to remain

Very truly yours

Christina G. Proffitt.