

30 Torrington Square — W. C.
Friday morning.

Dear Mr. Brown

Lucy kindly writing to help us
in a search for seaside lodgings mentions that Mr. Brown & Cathy were very comfortable two years ago at Walton-on-the-Naze
in the house of a certain Mr.
Wright, — & Lucy adds that tho' she herself does not recollect
the address, you are sure to know it. If so, will you be so obliging as to send it us? We are inclined to avoid the heat of the south coast this summer, so are turning our eyes eastwards.

I dare say you are already aware that poor little Arthur is suffering still from weakness & teething; I hope another tooth may come thro' & relieve him. The other healths are not mentioned, which suggests that they flourish.

We saw Gabriel last night, who seems making head against the heat very successfully.

My Mother & Aunt Charlotte send cordial remembrances to you. I hope cheerful news continue to reach you from Yarmouth.

Very truly yours

Christina G. Progetti.
