

Trowen, Aug. 3. 72

Dear Mr. Peck:

No particular news -
Your brother has had a quiet night as he admits;
and plenty of sleep, though he will not count dreaming as sleeping - We had a wet evening yesterday
but he took his usual
walk through the rain.

On the whole, report the same as yesterday -

Very sincerely

J. G. Harker

The post leaves Grief at 3 p.m. - It leaves here,
(for London in both cases)
at 12 noon - So you get news less than a day old.

The early post here (8 o'clock) is not the London despatch - we find.

Our united loves
to all.

We get your letters
an hour after we have despatched ours -

but in case of need
could send over to Grief a return of post answer -

It is as well for you to know all this -
