

March 9, 1865

Dear Sir

The History of Civilization which sent to you early tomorrow morning: we do not at all wish to hurry you, especially as you must not be too much to getting some deliberate criticism, to get rough criticism is ^{more} important for a daily journal. — About the subscriptions I will write again, in a day or two. Meanwhile I shall keep your oblige letter before me, but